

Navarro report: More than enough to overturn the election

By M. Dowling - December 17, 2020

Director of the Office of Trade and Manufacturing Policy Peter Navarro published a lengthy report Thursday. It puts all the evidence together of voting irregularities that are "more than sufficient" to swing the outcome of the presidential election.

The 36-page report "assesses the fairness and integrity of the 2020 Presidential Election by examining six dimensions of alleged election irregularities across six key battleground states" and concludes that "patterns of election irregularities ... are so consistent across the six battleground states that they suggest a coordinated strategy to, if not steal the election, strategically game the election process in such a way as to ... unfairly tilt the playing field in favor of the Biden-Harris ticket."

The six dimensions of voting irregularities in the report include: outright voter fraud, ballot mishandling, contestable process fouls, equal protection clause violations, voting machine irregularities, and significant statistical anomalies.

All six of those voting issues were present in at least two key states, according to the report, and a total of six battleground states experienced multiple examples of the other dimensions.

Additionally, the report cites affidavits alleging the exploitation of the elderly and the infirm by "effectively hijacking their identities and votes" and accuses Democrats of using the coronavirus pandemic to relax voter ID requirements to the point that ballot harvesting and fraud could slip by unnoticed.

It concludes by slamming the media for its dereliction of duty.

Peter Navarro releases his third report on the election

By M. Dowling - January 14, 2021

“The move by BigTech firms to de-platform FreeSpeech social media site Parler has a chilling effect,” said WH trade advisor Peter Navarro.

Peter Navarro, the White House trade advisor, released his third report on the election and voter integrity.

You can read it on this link or read below.

He calls for a full investigation. Navarro writes if ‘the Democrat Party, RINO elements of the Republican Party, the anti-Trump mainstream media, and the out-of-control censoring social media oligarchs do not cease and desist from their efforts to suppress the search for truth about the 2020 election, history will judge all of these people, corporations, and institutions in the harshest possible manner.’
