We saw this in Wisconsin, too.

Last night President Trump was leading significantly in several swing states including Georgia, North Carolina, Michigan, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

President Trump had a sizable lead in Wisconsin and Michigan but this morning Sleepy Joe somehow took the lead.

Overnight Wisconsin had a huge dump of votes all for Biden, notice the blue line below:

The state of the race in Wisconsin

Total presidential votes for each party so far, with 89 percent of Wisconsin's expected vote counted as of 6:23 a.m on Nov. 4

Expected vote totals are generated by Edison Research and estimate turnout based on historical trends, predicted changes in turnout, and the total number of votes cast in counties that have reported all votes. The totals will be adjusted throughout the counting process.

Overnight Joe Biden crept to a lead in Wisconsin but one Internet sleuth showed that this was possibly due to fraud:

Milwaukee also had some shady actions and delayed reporting:

"Milwaukee was supposed to report at 1am. Than they delayed until 2pm. Than delayed until 3am.
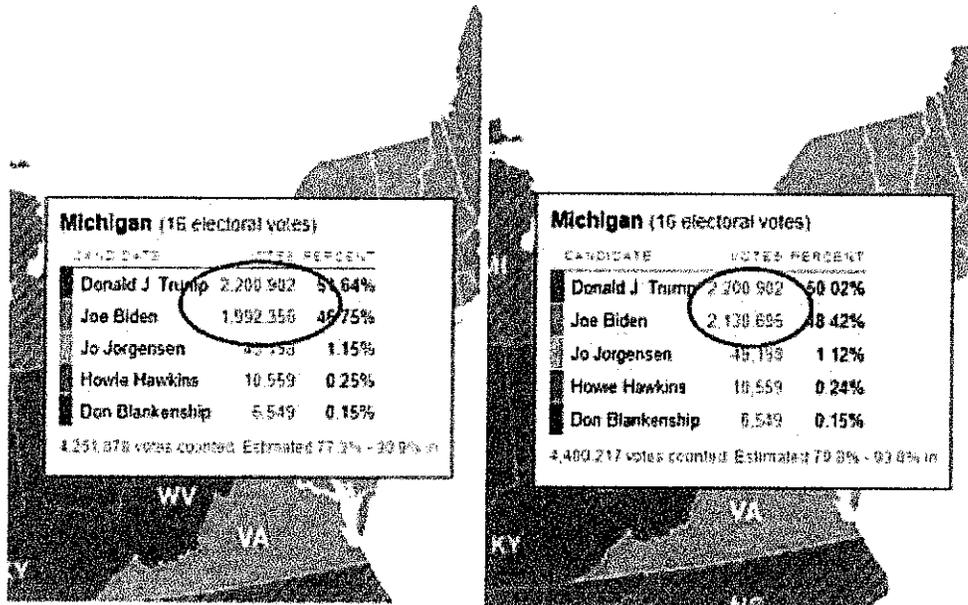

*At 3:30am, Biden over comes a 4.1 lead." pic.twitter.com/Vbl5TBvxL9

Now look at Michigan.
President Trump had a significant lead in Michigan late last night.

Then all of the sudden Joe Biden jumped up 200,000 votes and has the lead over President Trump.
200,000 VOTES!

Here is the evidence–

So 200k people voted for Biden and ZERO for Trump?

LOL. Biden got a 138,339 tranche of votes in Michigan without a single vote for Trump, in case you were wondering what is happening.

UPDATE– Officials are calling it a "typo".

The Michigan situation was a TYPO.

The massive jump in Biden votes out of nowhere is because Shiawassee county reported "153710" when it SHOULD have been "15371."

As you can see below, thankfully, the error was fixed.
