Here is why the next 100 days are critical for second wave

An employee of one of the world's largest defense contractors, Leonardo SpA, has sounded the alarm and provided a shocking deposition detailing his role in the most elaborate criminal act affecting a US election.

Arturo D'elio outlined the scheme that proved successful in using Leonardo computer systems and military satellites located in Pescara, Italy. Recent reports of a hack at Leonardo now appear to have been an orchestrated cover to mitigate blowback on the corporation which is partially owned by the Italian government.

A press release by Nations In Action revealed details:

Next 100 days are critical

Here is why the next 100 days are critical for second wave

Nations In Action, a government transparency organization, partnered with the Institute of Good Governance to thoroughly investigate and research the election irregularities which yielded the long awaited proof that a flawless plot to take down America was executed with extraordinary resources and global involvement. Americans and elected officials now have proof that the election was indeed stolen.

This provides the mechanism for each state to recall their slate of electors immediately or face lawsuits and request all federal government agencies to lock down all internal communications, equipment and documentation from the Rome Embassy. "Make no mistake, this is a coup d'etat that we will stop in the name of justice and free and fair elections," stated Maria Strollo Zack, Chairman of Nations in Action.

The Institute for Good Governance issued the following statement:

Our mission is to provide the full truth, expose the perpetrators of this horrific crime, and ensure that every person involved, regardless of position, be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Nations In Action and the Institute for Good Governance are making the following demands on elected officials:

- Depose State Department officials starting with Rome staff including Stefan Serafini
- Immediately strip Leonardo SpA of all contracts and seize assets
- All congressional members must speak out against this foreign and domestic interference or face recalls and suspicion of involvement
- Implement the most severe penalties for participants who had knowledge or participated and refuse to assist in the investigation

Maria Strollo Zack, founder of Nations In Action added, "States must prosecute all illegal voting activities and provide immediate legislative remedies. There can only be zero tolerance for criminal interference in American elections. This international conspiracy must be met with swift action by the President and be fully supported by elected officials for the protection of voting integrity and the prosperity of our great nation."

The text of the general affidavit read:

I, Prof Alfio D'Urso, Advocate/Lawyer, of Via Vittorio Emanuele, Catania, 95131 Italy, do hereby provide the following affidavit of facts as conveyed in several meetings with a high level army security services official:

Arturo D'Elia, former head of the IT Department of Leonardo SpA, has been charged by the public prosecutor of Naples for technology/data manipulation and implantation of viruses in the main computers of Leonardo SpA in December 2020. D'Elia has been deposed by the presiding judge in Naples and in sworn testimony states on 4 November 2020, under instruction and direction of US persons working from the US Embassy in Rome, undertook the operation to switch data from the US elections of 3 November 2020 from significant margin of victory for Donald Trump to Joe Biden in a number of states where Joe Biden was losing the vote totals. Defendant stated he was working in the Pescara facility of Leonardo SpA and utilized military grade cyber warfare encryption capabilities to transmit switched votes via military satellite of Fucino Tower to Frankfurt Germany. The defendant swears that the data in some cases may have been switched to represent more than total voters registered. The defendant has stated he is willing to testify to all individuals and entities involved in the switching of votes from Donald Trump to Joe Biden when he shall be in total protection for himself and his family. Defendant states he has secured in an undisclosed location the backup of the original data and data switched upon instruction to provide evidence at court in this matter.

I hereby declare and swear the above stated facts have been stated in my presence.

DATED this 6th day of January 2021 at Rome, Italy.

This is shocking! Will it go nowhere? Probably not. Bottom line is: Trump is done. That all that the Communist Party cares about and they will not allow anything different now. Even waking from deep sleep, the Supreme Court will not rule in the favor of this man named Trump. He just gets too much accomplished that goes against either Party. They cannot deal with him and neither can China. That's the cutting edge truth.....

Wow. It's 1/8/2021 and I "just happened" to read this article out of any, although

I have heard of this Italian tacet in the last 2 days. I'm posting this because I wrote those EXACT words (except for 'Jim' lol) at least 3-4 weeks ago. You have given me new hope that God may intercede yet for a righteous resolution to the fraud and evil criminality that appears to have our Republic headed to the misery and death that socialism ALWAYS brings. God bless you, His Will be done.

The fact that Youtube took this video down in the purge is just another reminder that successful warfare requires securing the lines of communication. - Failure to do this was a grievous error for the Trump family to have made, particularly when you consider that every warning and pleading had been given for months prior to this coup even as Ivanka and Jared were out on the town wining and dining with Silicon Valley's top corporate fascists.

"Even if it is true"? Not a chance in 100!

1 ^ | v • Reply • Share >

SunShine → E Miller • a month ago • edited

I don't know if it's true or if it's false. What I do know is that if it's true, it will create a national revolution. If it's false and widely circulated, it will also trigger an uprising from the far right. I'm trying to learn more as to veracity, which is difficult to do these days as trust of all of our institutions has been long broken, leaving a vacuum to be filled by anything. You add as icing what appears to a reasonable person to be a partnership between large tech and the Democratic congress in censoring speech and we're sitting on a tick-tick-tick. I would be inclined to say Ok, I see why tech is doing the Trump cancel -- although I could argue nuances of that -- but I have a harder time doing that when I see big tech cancelling people who have not incited violence, been vicious, and are seeking peace -- like Unity2020 -- but who made the mistake of not parroting the Tech-approved media message of support Biden. Heck I was banned this morning in Reddit for a simple sentence: "All conservatives are not white supremacists."

People are good at sensing when something is wrong. They are not always good at accurately stating the cause.

I am terrified that our Republic is unravelling. As long as liberals believe that half of the nation is not worthy of consideration and that there is no corruption in the Congress, we have a problem with serious consequences. As long as conservatives believe liberals are the devil incarnate whose main job is to silence them, demean them and take away their freedom, we have a problem with serious consequences.

It's fixable but is there the high thinking needed to repair?

You are witnessing the left reaction to the right-wing extremism of these last four years, and now its becoming extreme on the left. (not to mention Trump's personal short-comings) Extremism begets more opposing extremism. But as a person almost 74, and a former Republican (who still believes in some core Rep. principles), In these last few years I think the Dems are a bit less extreme then Trump Republicans. And, most of all for me, are willing to keep religion separate from politics and occasionally willing to compromise.

You have gotten less smart in your 74 years, friend. How can you logically make the claim..."In these last few years I think the Dems are a bit less extreme then Trump Republicans." You obviously don't know a thing about the BLM movement or ANTIFA, yet you post something as libelous as you did.

I feel sorry for you, you are very close to leaving this Earth and you will take your eternal dirt nap as a silly Dem.

The BLM movement is an independent group that has the support of some, but not all, Dems. It is not directly affiliated with Dems. Antifa is tiny and unorganized, its been greatly OVER-INFLATED by Republican politicians and media celebrities. Mostly used as a scare tactic and to mobilize opposition.

Here's what Wikipedia says about it:

"There have been multiple efforts to discredit antifa groups via hoaxes on social media, many of them false flag attacks originating from alt-right and 4chan users posing as antifa backers on Twitter.[17][18][19] Some hoaxes have been picked up and reported as fact by right-leaning media.[17][20][21] During the George Floyd protests in May and June 2020, the Trump administration blamed antifa for orchestrating the mass protests; analysis of federal arrests did not find links to antifa.[22] There have been repeated calls by Donald Trump and William Barr to designate antifa as a terrorist organization[23] despite the fact that it is not an organization, a move that academics, legal experts, and others argue would exceed the authority of the presidency and violate the First Amendment.[24][25][26] Several analyses, reports, and studies concluded that antifa is not a major domestic terrorism risk and ranked far-right extremism and white supremacy as the top domestic risk.[16][27][28]"

If it is an independent movement then why did kameltoe and others in the biden campaign raise bailout money for blm and antifa members that were arrested?

E Miller → nsctx • a month ago • edited

Please show references or links to this allegation. Otherwise don't expect anyone with half a brain to believe you. Especially about "Antifa" which is a simplistic Trumpist fantasy, a scare tactic. As for BLM, yes Harris probably supports this, and I'll admit they tend to support some baseless cases. But they also have some valid ones. And its less wrong then Trump's support of assault rifles,, the "proud boys", and the KKK. And Harris is only the VICE president while Trump was the president.

^ | v 1 • Reply • Share >

nsctx → E Miller • a month ago

Go look up antifa for your self. The have been around for many years. The really came into prominence during the obammer years. As usual, Trump had nothing to do with them being around. blm, by their own acclamation, are a marxist organization. harris, backed their movement and even advocated funding for organizations to arrange to pay their bail for them. You really need to get your "facts" straight. There is no such thing as and "assault rifle", it is a name that dems put out. It could mean a .22 auto loading rifle used to plink and shoot squirrels. How many times did trump disavow the KKK? I can state at least 30. How many times did harris/biden disavow antifa/blm? None.

I've HAVE looked it up previously...more then once. It was always strange to me that you'd frequently hear "antifa" mentioned from right wing commenters, yet not in actual news reports. Here's what Wikipedia has to say about antifa:

"Antifa is a left-wing anti-fascist and anti-racist political movement in the United States. It is highly decentralized and comprises an array of autonomous groups that aim to achieve their objectives through use of both nonviolent and violent direct action rather than through policy reform. Much of antifa political activism is nonviolent, involving poster and flyer campaigns, mutual aid, delivering speeches, marching in protest, and community organizing. They also engage in protest tactics, seeking to combat fascists and racists such as neo-Nazis, white supremacists, and other far-right extremists, and differing from other leftist opposition movements by their willingness to directly confront far-right activists, and in some cases law enforcement.

"There have been multiple efforts to discredit antifa groups via hoaxes on social media, many of them false flag attacks originating from alt-right and 4chan users posing as antifa backers on Twitter.[16][17][18] Some Antifa has been around for decades, their main goal is anarchy, nothing else. If they found away to win, they would be like libertarians. They are so against authority that they would kill each other. They are like mosquitos, they are just a problem and are of no benefit to anyone or thing. The dems just found away to use them for their gain. Now they will have to find away to control them, obammer couldn't, what makes you think that biden will?

Why would we need to expand welfare and food stamps when only 3.5% of the population was employed and taking home more money than ever before in the history of the world? Why would we not want a wall to protect us? We have seen what a world without the wall was. But then you are talking about things that are good for this country and trying to make them bad. Fiscally, Trump was the best President that has ever been until the China virus hit and the dems found that they could use it to their advantage.

You are living in a dream world as far as Antifa's impact or its importance goes. But I can see, you've swallowed the bait. You've got you mind made up on that. No sense discussing it.

Fiscal issues are important yes, but not the only concern. And what good were Trump's fiscal accomplishments if he couldn't sustain them by staying in office? The fact that he couldn't control his emotional behavior or childish twitter antics. The hate, name-calling, and inability to take advice from scientific experts. The fact he denied global warming. That he couldn't work well with politicians, (even his own cabinet) and wound up having the highest rate of staff turnover of any president ever! He even alienated his fellow party members in Congress! Even lost the normally Republican state of Arizona because of his slurs and name-calling (a couple years earlier) toward a dying Sen. McCain. And why? Simply because McCain disagreed with him on an issue. Yes the pandemic had a hand in his downfall but it was FAR from the only issue! The man was his own worst enemy when it came to inspiring confidence,or gaining

Weather underground was an offshoot of antifa. Originally in the 1930's antifa actually meant something good. It was to actually get rid of fascist governments like Hitler and Mussolini. They had a cause back then now they are just a bunch of anarchists looking to loot and burn. You notice that the dems don't call them out and disavow them like Trump did over 30 times with the KKK and White Supremacist's. Their impact and blm's impact caused justice roberts to make the behind door comment that if they ruled on the election digressions then the riots would get worse. That, my good friend is and "impact".

The fact that you still believe and mention Trump's phony "election fraud" allegations convinces me that its hopeless to reason with you. Trump started spouting voter fraud within hours of the election, long before the count was even finished! He couldn't have possibly known that soon! But it was typical Trump! He had learned that ploy from his old friend and mentor, McCarthy era lawyer Roy Cohn. "When the verdict goes against you attack the process, attack the judges". Good luck with your fantasies and false reality!

There's a bit of naiveté (or perhaps wishful thinking) on the part of the interviewer in suggesting that each of the swing states innocently certified their slate of electors. Anyone who took the time to watch the witness testimony at legislative hearings in MI, WI, PA, GA, AZ and NV understands full well the horrendous election voter and election official fraud during this election.

"Vindicated"? Once, and mainly with the help from numerous technicalities, and political party support. In the meantime and since, I, and many others, have continually observed audio, text, and video of his actions reacting childishly, un-presidential, and foolish. The conspiracies, false accusations and rumors have continued non-stop. Only to lose credence later. But now we're supposed to believe this one person, clear over in Italy, saying the US election has been rigged!....In spite of numerous US election officials and judges (some of whom are Republican) who've said there's no substance to the allegations! And Many more previous subordinates and Rep. politicians now condemning Trump in this. At this point it takes a special kind of fool to give any credence or devote any time to these shallow allegations!
