Colorado County Clerks Association was called to testify at the Colorado General Assembly regarding the November General Election as election experts. The CCCA, through Chuck Broerman (El Paso Clerk) and Gilbert Ortiz (Pueblo County Clerk), has made a strong statement of the validity of the election results. Colorado election laws, processes, and procedures. The publicly appointed boards' outcome of the election is correct. The allegations regarding the audit of the paper ballots demonstrated the facts. Colorado election results are fully verifiable and are not dependent on the voting systems, but paper
