

Benford's Law Mathematical Formula Should be used for all states to find fraud.

This would verify if the vote was accurate or reveal if there was fraud.

Benford's Law is a regularly used mathematical formula used in the court room to verify if there was fraud or if the count is accurate